

The chase

“When will it be enough?”

“When will you be content?”

Our society pushes us to pursue success and wealth...

A blurred city street at night, viewed from the perspective of someone inside a car. The car's side mirror is visible in the foreground on the right. In the background, there are tall buildings and a bus with its lights on. The image has a motion blur effect, suggesting the car is moving quickly.

To have a good job, make a lot of money, and own the best and latest.

To climb the ladder of power and influence at work.

To own a nice car and invest in property.

To travel the world and live a life that's the envy of our friends.

A woman in a dark blue blazer and grey skirt is pulling a dark blue rolling suitcase. In the foreground, another person's hand is visible, holding the handle of a black rolling suitcase. The background is a bright, out-of-focus airport or travel area with large windows and other people.

You start to see how your successful career and the life you've been dreaming of are finally coming together.

And you believe you'll finally feel fulfilled,
content, at peace...

But—what if you're not?

If money, and everything it gets you, don't actually make you feel truly happy...

If you can't ever seem to make enough...

If success doesn't feel like you thought it would...

What then?

When will enough
be enough?

When will you be able to stop the chase?

Here is a story from the Bible about a rich man who asked an important question to Jesus.

He was a good, moral person who had achieved wealth and importance in his community.

But he still wanted more.

He wasn't satisfied...

The Rich Man

As Jesus was starting out on his way to Jerusalem, a man came running up to him, knelt down, and asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

“Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked. “Only God is truly good. But to answer your question, you know the commandments:

‘You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. You must not cheat anyone. Honor your father and mother.’”

“Teacher,” the man replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was young.”

Looking at the man, Jesus felt genuine love for him.

“There is still one thing you haven’t done,” he told him. “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

At this the man’s face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

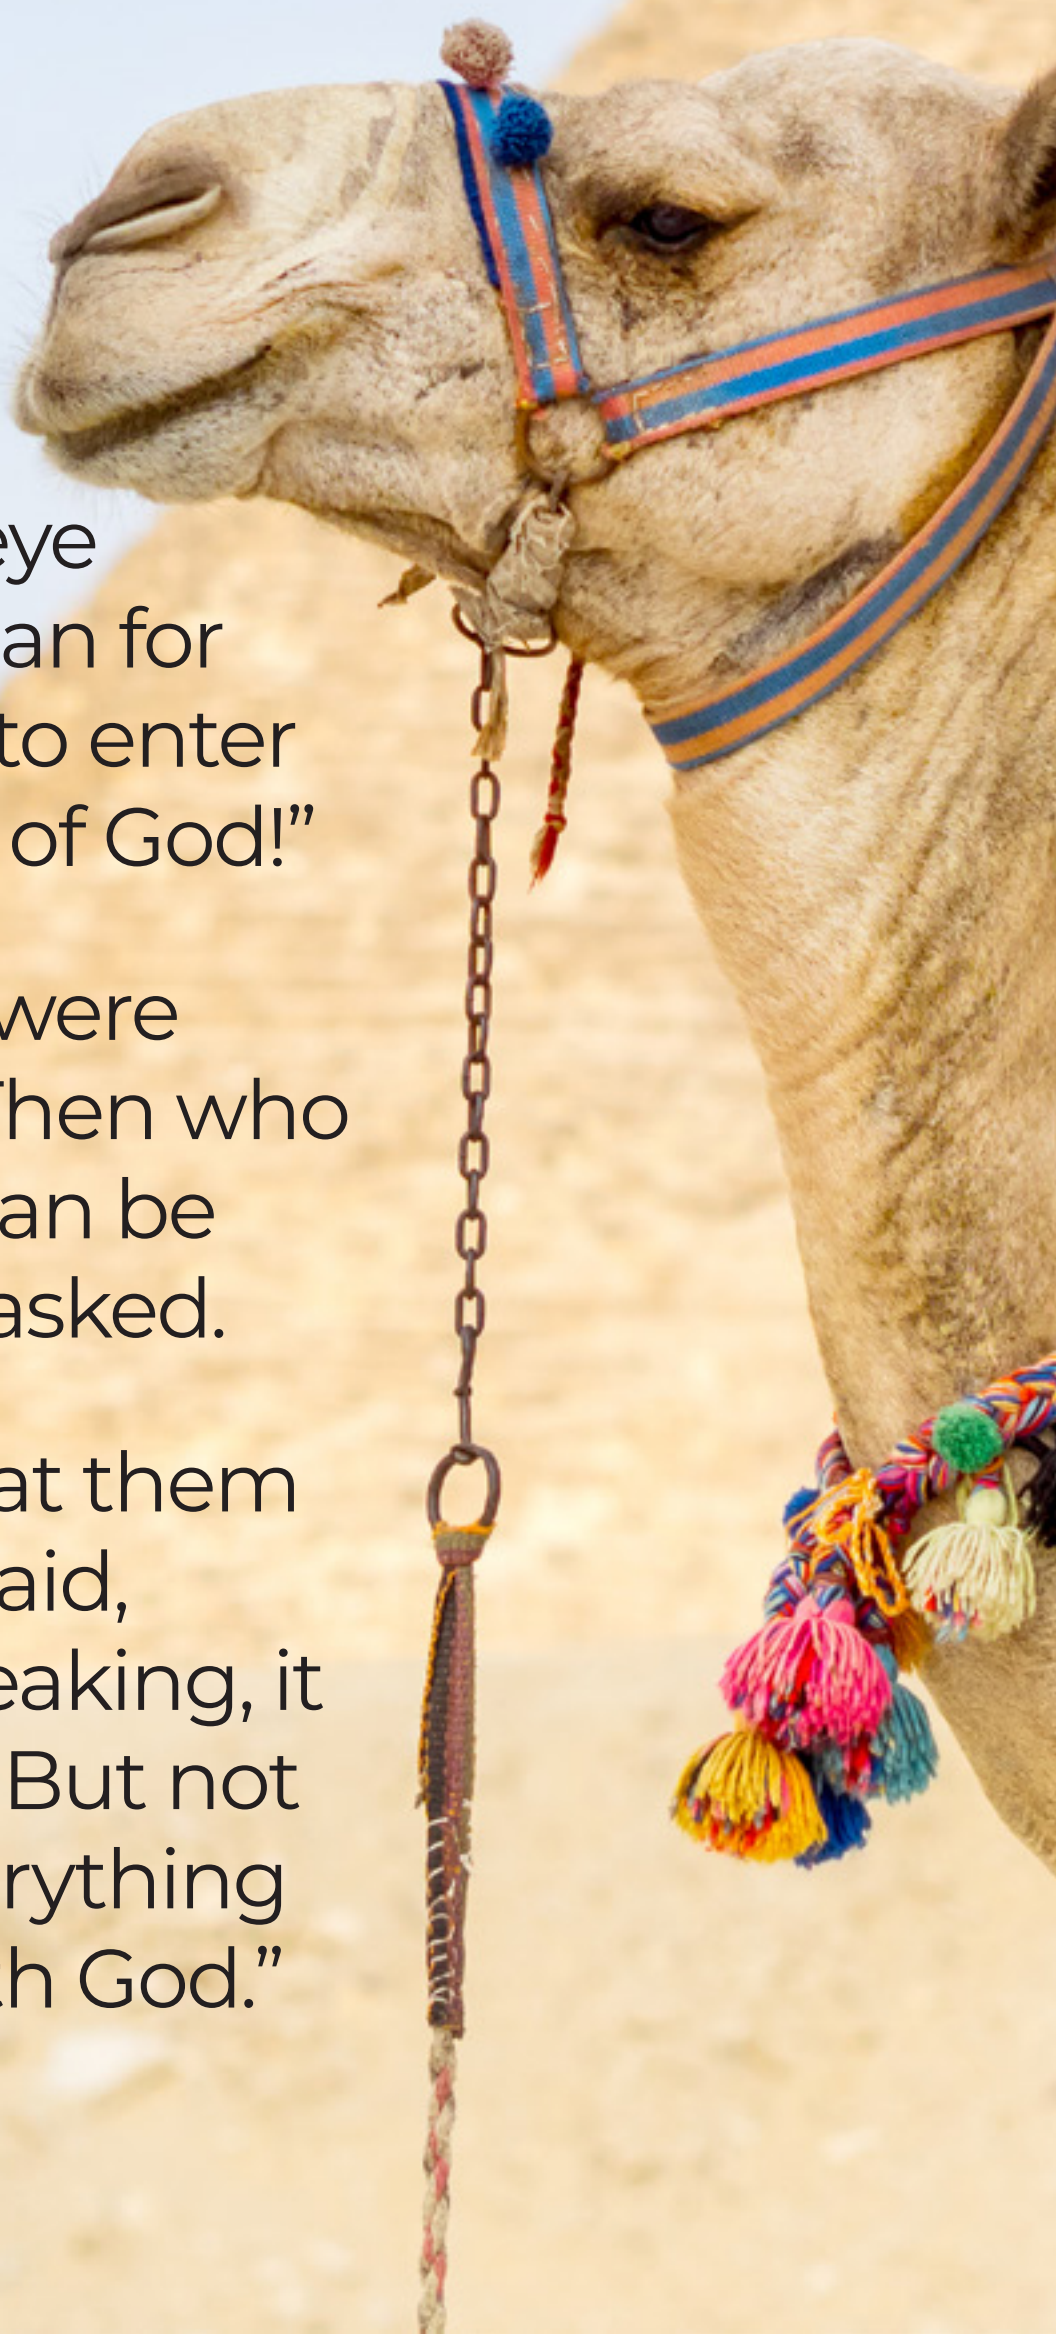

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God!”

This amazed them. But Jesus said again, “Dear children, it is very hard to enter the Kingdom of God. In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God.”

MARK 10:17-27

Here are some other things the Bible says about money and success...

“Beware!
Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

LUKE 12:15

Just as Death and Destruction are never satisfied,
so human desire
is never satisfied.

PROVERBS 27:20

A woman in a red dress is holding several shopping bags. The bags are in various colors: brown, grey, red, tan, and yellow. The woman's hands are visible, holding the handles of the bags. The background is blurred, suggesting an outdoor setting.

Enjoy what you have rather than desiring what you don't have. Just dreaming about nice things is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

ECCLESIASTES 6:9

“Wherever your treasure is, there
the desires of your heart will also be.”

MATTHEW 6:21

“What do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul?”

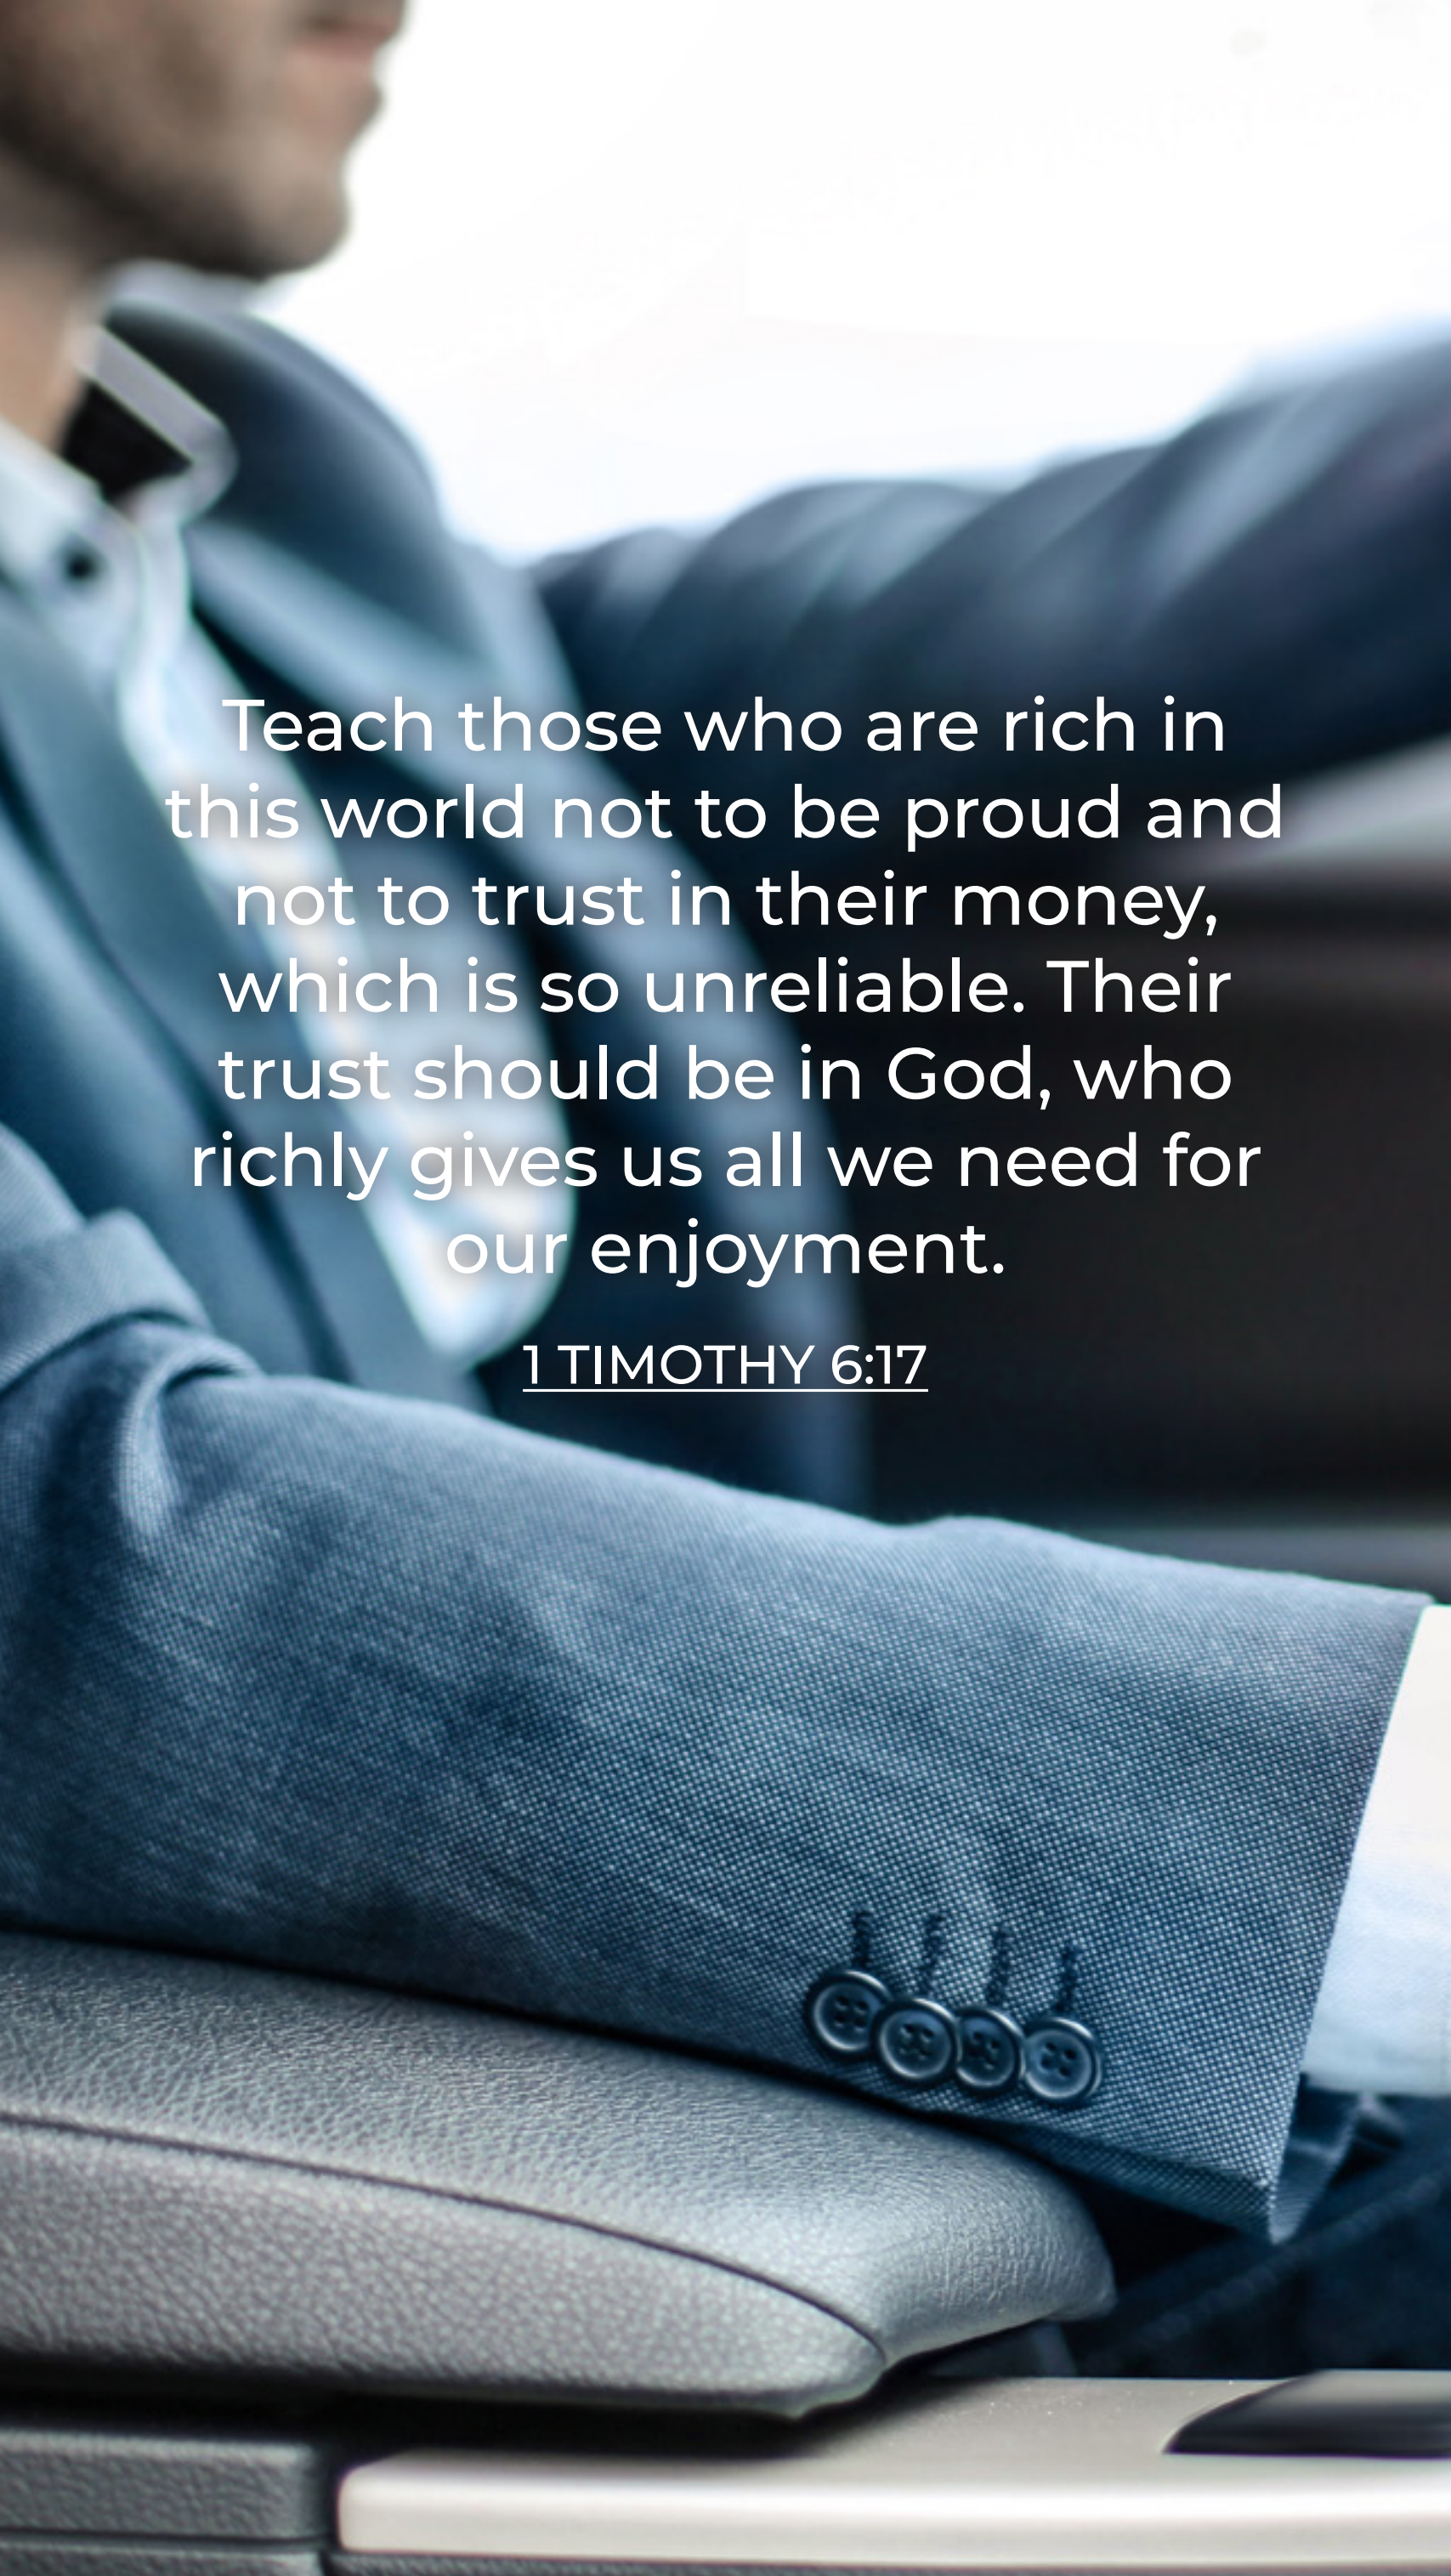

MARK 8:36-37

“No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money.”

MATTHEW 6:24

A photograph of a Gothic church with a large rose window, surrounded by modern skyscrapers and green trees. The church is made of light-colored stone and features intricate Gothic architecture, including pointed arches and a large rose window. Modern skyscrapers with many windows are visible in the background, and green trees are in the foreground.

Money, success, and accomplishments will never satisfy the longings of your heart.
There is only one thing—one Person—who will satisfy your hunger and thirst for peace, fulfillment, and meaning.

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a man in a blue suit jacket and light blue shirt, sitting in the driver's seat of a car. He is looking out the window to his right. The background is bright and out of focus. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment.

1 TIMOTHY 6:17

After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content.

1 TIMOTHY 6:7-8

Trust in the LORD and do good. Then you will live safely in the land and prosper. Take delight in the LORD...

PSALM 37:3-5

You know the generous grace
of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though
he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor,
so that by his poverty he could make you rich.

2 CORINTHIANS 8:9

A close-up, high-angle shot of clear water being poured from a glass bottle into a glass. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic, flowing shape. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue, and the lighting highlights the transparency and movement of the liquid.

Jesus replied, “Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh,
bubbling spring
within them,
giving them
eternal life.”

JOHN 4:13-14

If you are ready to stop chasing after things that end up leaving you feeling empty, you can choose a different path.

The journey of your life can be filled with hope and purpose—if you choose to surrender to the One who has been pursuing you since you were born.

So Jesus told them this story:
“If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost
until he finds it?

And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.’

In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven’t strayed away!”

LUKE 15:3-7

“For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.”
